

AL BARAKA
Restaurant

IN THE SOUKS

AL BARAKA means fortune.

In Marrakech, in the heart of the famous square Jmaa El Fna, is the restaurant AL BARAKA. This restaurant is characterized by the authenticity of its cuisine while maintaining the purest essence of Moroccan cuisine. Old noble house, with its rooms and landscaped courtyards, takes us to another era maintaining the tradition of Moroccan culinary art thanks to the recipes meticulously elaborated by its cooks.

Due to its location, lunch in this place is ideal as the end or beginning of any visit of the old part of the city.

TRADITION

The exquisite dishes chosen within the Moroccan gastronomic tradition complete the menu of Al Baraka. The famous semolina couscous with chicken and legumes, the lamb tagine with nuts and spices, the traditional pástela with almonds and many other specialties will honor your palate.

EDINTERMEDIATE MENU

- Variety of Moroccan salads (8 types) or Niçoise international salad
- Stuffed briouats (choose 2 between minced meat, rice, chicken or cheese)
- Tagine kefta with eggs or Tagine Lemon chicken
- Oranges with cinnamon and dates or Crepes with honey
- Tea and various pastas

AL BARAKA SALONS

It has several lounges, located around an Andalusian-style courtyard full of orange trees which is a haven of incredible peace, considering the crowded place where it is located.

In its upper and lower floors we find the different rooms where you can make lunch with typical dishes of the city of Marrakech and Morocco in general.

GROUND FLOOR :

- 1 living room for 120 people
- 2 living rooms for 50 people
- 1 living room for 40 people
- Outdoor patio for 140 people

UPSTAIRS :

- 2 living rooms for 40 people
- 1 terrace for 80 people
- 1 terrace for 60 people

